

My Mom's Bread Bowl

It is my Mom's Grandma's bread bowl. It has been past down. From my Great Grandma. To my Grandma to my Mom. My Mom still makes bread in it. My Great Grandma used to make bread in it. My Grandma made bread in it. My mom makes bread in it. My Mom still makes bread in it for big parties and gatherings. She made bread in it for my first communion. People can make bread however they want. But my Mom's bread is really good.

My Mom suggested it. She suggested doing that because it is old. And it is still in use. This artifact is about 30 years old. It is used to make bready things. That it was used a lot. Not just by Mom. Yes because it is used for making bread in it. And it is old. And it is still in use. It is used for special events. It is a good keepsake.

It is a good memory of our Great Grandma. She also has used it a lot. This is for Julie Pohlkamp the only Bread baker good for a big batch of bread. This says it on the back of the Bread bowl. My Great Grandma Wrote it on the back.

--Mason A